THE 'GOING STRAIGHT' EXHIBITION

Billy 'The Brush' rose to prominence in the 1990s when he painted near-exact versions of the works of Matisse, Vincent Van Gogh and Claude Venard amongst others and passed them off as originals.

He was eventually jailed for two years after putting more than £6 million in fake works through some of the art world's best-known auction houses.

This is your chance to meet the notorious 'Billy The Brush'. A selection of his works will be on display at Matthews Hall Topsham. If you have always fancied a Picasso, Lowry or Modigliani to enhance the walls of your house this is your chance to own a genuine forgery by 'Billy The Brush'.

Paintings are supplied with a signed certificate to authenticate their provenance.
